I. MOTION FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

I. INTRODUCTION

Suit is authorized by 42 U.S.C. §1983.

III. PARTIES

3. Latasha Holloway, a registered voter at all times mentioned herein was, (and remains) a resident of the City of Virginia Beach and of the Commonwealth of Virginia and a citizen of the United States of America.

4. The City of Virginia Beach, Virginia among their duties and responsibilities is the protection, observance and safeguarding of the constitutions of the United States and of the Commonwealth by and through its City Council the duly elected representatives thereof:

IV. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

5. Plaintiff claims injury as direct result of the defendants at large elections to the City Council deprives the plaintiff and other qualified voters of equal treatment and an opportunity to vote for a candidate of their choice as guaranteed by the Voting Rights Act, 1965, as amended, 42 U.S. C. §1973, et. seq., 42 U.S.C. §1983, and the First, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution while acting under color of state law.

V. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

6. The City of Virginia Beach at large elections to the City Council has the effect of diluting or minimizing “minority voting strength” in violation of Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, 42 U.S. C. §1973, et. seq., 42 U.S.C. §1983, and the First, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and laws.

VI. THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

7. The City of Virginia Beach at large elections to the City Council has the purpose and effect of denying or abridging the rights of minorities to vote on account of race or color in violation of Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended 42 U.S.C. §1973 et. seq., 42 U.S.C. §1983, and the First, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

VII. FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8. The City of Virginia Beach at large elections to the City Council has the effect of diluting or minimizing “ethnic minorities and linguistic minorities” voting strength” in violation of Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, 42 U.S. C. §1973, et. seq., 42 U.S.C. §1983, and the First, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and laws.

VIII. FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

9. The City of Virginia Beach at large elections to the City Council has the purpose and effect of denying or abridging the rights of “ethnic minorities and linguistic minorities” of an equal opportunity to vote for a candidate of their choice as guaranteed by the Voting Rights Act, as amended 42 U.S.C. §1973 et. seq., 42 U.S.C. §1983, and the First, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution while acting under color of state law.

IX. SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

10. The City of Virginia Beach deprives elderly individuals and people with disabilities basic accessible or alternate polling places in elections in violation of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended 42 U.S.C. §1973, 42 U.S.C. §1983, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Voting Accessibility for the Elderly and Handicapped Act of 1984 (VAEHA), and the First, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution while acting under color of state law.

1. TAKE JUDICIAL NOTICE: From 1906 until 1986 every member of Virginia Beach’s city council to hold office was white. In 1986 John Richard Logan Perry, was the first Black elected to Council until 1990, Louisa M. Strayhorn was the first Black female from 1994-1998, and Dr. Amelia Ross-Hammond was the second Black female from 2013 until 2016, and from that time, until this action was filed, the council had no black member. In an at-large system, the majority always has the strength to elect all of its candidates. By taking a historical white bloc voting analysis into consideration, it provides a more accurate portrayal of vote dilution or compelling evidence that the system is operating to dilute black votes. See Gingles, 478 U.S. at 56, 106 S.Ct. at 2769
